The function of the Councils would be to:

- (i) Promote the cause of judicial education;
- (ii) Devise the academic calendar for NJA;
- (iii) Prescribe, and approve academic calendars for SJAs;
- (iv) Promote the growth and availability of resources required for judicial training and education;
- (v) Coordinate and monitor the functioning of NJA & SJAs;
- (vi) Suggest methods for improving judicial education facilities and cooperation among NJA and SJAs. NJA and SJAs will submit annual academic calendars of their respective academies to the Council for finalization. The annual calendars of SJAs be prepared in a manner that to the extent practicable, the distribution of subjects be divided in the ratio of 80:20 between pan India subjects and state specific subjects (the proportion shall be 50:50 for the States of Nagaland, Mizoram, Meghalaya, Arunachal Pradesh and Manipur).
